

How to Make Ice Cubes

1. Determine if Ice Cubes Need to be Made.

- a. Check contents of ice cube storage container
- b. Count remaining cube of ice. Record carefully
- c. Refer to locally negotiated Ice Cube Replacement Agreement
- d. Determine if ice cubes need to be made
- e. If ice cubes need to be made, continue to Step 2.

2. Gather Required Materials

This task requires the following materials:

- Ice cube tray (A variety of shapes and materials are available)
- Freezer
- Water (Other liquids can be substituted)
- Optional: Absorbent Material (Rag, Paper Towel, Cat, etc)

Gather all materials in a space near the primary water source. Proceed to Step 3.

3. Prepare Workspace

Clear path between water source and freezer

Instruct small children to stay away

Place small animals in area away from path

4. Make Ice Cubes

- a. Turn on tap
- b. Fill ice cube tray
- c. Carefully place tray in freezer
- d. Wait
- e. Repeat as required